

Established in 1948, after World War II

Its main goal was to bring youths together to better understand different cultures around the world.

The hope is to change a person one intersnhip at a time

By 1977, AIESEC was able to operate in 50 counties across six continents.

By 2010, AIESEC was able to deliver 10,000 international exchanges in one year.

Today, AIESEC was able to build a global network of young leadership partnering with over 7,000 organizations in over 120 countries and territories.

What is AIESEC in Carleton?

AIESEC is divided by each country then by each province/territory then by their local committee. In this case, that is Carleton University.

The benefits to having a local committee in Carleton is that we are able to work in the capital of Canada (Ottawa, Ontario, Canada).

We can also can easily interact with eager youths who want to work in their fields around the world.

That is why we have partnered up with the Sprott School of Business.

Why are we interested in your company?

We would like to create more opportunities for Students in the Sprott school of business and diversify their knowledge on different cultures through the workforce.

What can we do for your company?

We will provide interns from BIB of Carleton University. We will also handle the recruitment process and ensure it will be as easy as hiring local interns.

Why AIESEC in Carleton?

Partnership with AIESEC in Carleton will give you access to a large pool of BIB students who are prepared for an internship.

What benefits will the company get?

1) Hire with ease

We handle the recruitment process from start to finish, all the legal documents, accommodation and taking care of the intern during their internship will make your company feel at ease.

2) Free employment

As BIB students, they need to have credits for international internship. Salary is up to the company to decide as they are not requesting a paid internship.

Company only needs to pay for AIESEC in Carleton service fees and visa fees (If you choose fully physical internship)

3) Boost work culture

Bringing interns from abroad will help you to diversify your workplace as well as bring new ideAsiandspersactives to your company.

According to the research, workplace diversity will help increase productivity, cultural awareness, marketing opportunities, creativity, and positive reputation.

4) Several options for employment

Due to the current world situation, traveling has become a challenge, so we offer you three options for employment:

Fully physical Partially remote Fully remote

How does it work?

Here is the process of the program:

OUR PROCESS

WEEK 1: APPLICATIONS

Receiving applications to your position.

First things first, we'll take your job description which we received through our Global Talent Form and post it on our global database.

WEEK 2:

Generating a shortlist based on your needs.

After we collect around 150-200 applications, we'll begin working down the list to narrow down your options.

WEEK 3-4: SELECTION

Choosing your intern.

Once you've received a shortlist from AIESEC, you can either begin your own interviews or you can select directly from the batch!

WEEK 5:

Preparing for arrival.

AIESEC takes care of everything from visa application support, to accommodation search, to picking up the intern from the airport.

WEEK 13-18*:

Integration into

We don't stop at arrival! AIESEC also offers socials with other international interns, leadership development spaces, and emotional and professional support throughout the internship.

For partly-remote internships, you can expect the intern to start almost right after they are selected since they will not have to wait for their work permit in order to start their job. When they remotely start their work, they will still receive support from AIESEC through constant communication and routine check-ins. Despite the intern working remotely for the first portion of their internship, we will still offer them sessions to help with their leadership development. Once the remote part of the exchange is over and IEC starts processing work permits once again, AIESEC will assist the intern in applying for their work permit. Once the intern arrives, we will continue with helping them integrate into Canadian life.

Why BIB?

Students in the Sprott Bachelor of International Business (BIB) program must complete one year abroad in the third year of the program while maintaining the minimum required CGPA in core and language courses. Students can learn Spanish, French, German, Japanese, and Mandarin.

To meet the BIB Year Abroad requirements, internships must meet the following criteria:

- Student's work must be related to Business
- Internships must take place during the year abroad
- Internships must be at least 12 weeks (0.5 credits). If completing two internship terms, the minimum length requirement is 24 weeks (1.0 credits)
- Internships must be full time (30 40 hours per week), depending on the location
- Students must engage with the culture and or language of their BIB stream throughout their internship
- All internships must be supervised and verified by Sprott
- BIB students completing internship terms must successfully complete BUSI 3701 (0.5 credits) in Term 1, and if applicable, BUSI 3702 (0.5 credits) in Term 2, to receive credit for their internship and towards their Year Abroad requirement.
